Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / surveillance

February 22, 1923. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal, and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N. J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative located in the vicinity of the Subject's home and the Lord Sterling School.

At about 1.15 p.m. the Subject came from the building at #49 Carman St., and proceeded to the Lord Sterling School.

At about 5.25 p.m. the Subject came from the Lord Sterling School and proceeded in the direction of his home. Just outside of the Subject's home, he was joined by a small boy about 12 or 14 years of age. At the time the young boy joined the Subject, he was carrying a bottle of milk. The Subject gave the small boy instructions, apparently sending him on another errand, took the bottle of milk from the boy, and entered the house at #49 Carman Street, New Brunswick, N.J. A short time afterwards, the young boy above mentioned was observed by Operative, entering the house carrying a package.

Operative kept the house at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J., under surveillance until 9.40 p.m., then proceeded to the railroad station and boarded the 10.15 p.m. train for New York City, and discontinued.

There were no other activities concerning the Subject, other than as mentioned above.
